9 IN MEMORIAM

MERTTON—In memory of our loving mother and grandmother, Margaret Mertton, who passed away March 25, 1954.
—Sadly missed by her daughter Flo, son-in-law, Laurie Wigley and granddaughters Florence and Norma.

RAFTER — In loving memory of George Rafter, who passed away March 25, 1958.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here,
And who, though absent, is just as dear.
—Sadly missed by his wife, Belle, and family.

RYLES—In fond memory of our loving father and grandpa, Daniel B. Ryles, called to rest March 25, 1958.
Gone is the face we loved so dear,
Silent is the voice we loved to hear;
Too far away for sight or speech,
But not too far for thought to reach.
The rolling stream of life rolls on,
But still the vacant chair
Recalls the love, the voice, the smile
Of the one who once sat there.
—Ever remembered and sadly missed by Iris, Gay and Lynda.

RYLES—In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, Daniel B. Ryles, who passed away March 25, 1958.
Death's links to break, but all in vain;
To have, to love, and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years may wipe out many things,
But this they'll wipe out never,
The memory of those happy days
When we were all together.
—Always remembered by Winnie, Willis, Dorrine and Ken.

RYLES—In loving memory of our dear father, Daniel B. Ryles, called to rest March 25, 1958.
God saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered "Peace be thine."
—Lovingly remembered by Ivy and Fred.

RYLES—In fond memory of a loving husband and father, Daniel B. Ryles, who passed away March 25, 1958.
His smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall.
He had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land
Never to part again.
—Ever remembered by his loving wife and family.
